Southwest Mississippi Junior College

Summit, Mississippi

EDITOR: Vicky Lambert

CLASS 1930

Foreword

Every student who attends Southwest Mississippi Junior College is offered high scholastic, social, and spiritual opportunities.

Throughout the future, the alumni of Southwest Mississippi Junior College can recall many pleasant memories of their years at S.M.J.C.

We hope that this edition of the "Whispering Pines" will be a key to unlock your storehouse of memories.

Precious moments spent with friends, pride gained from academic achievements, and athletic victories won, filling each student with spirit and enthusiam, have made 1965 a year to remember.

As this year comes to a close, S.M.J.C. will become a pleasant memory to each sophomore and to each freshman, Southwest Mississippi Junior College offers another span of time to enjoy the wonderful life beneath the whispering pines.

Dedication

"Behind every great man stands a great woman."

Mrs. H. T. Huddleston is the woman who stands behind our President. By standing behind President Huddleston with her love, encouragement, and advice, Mrs. Huddleston is a major part of Southwest Mississippi Junior College.

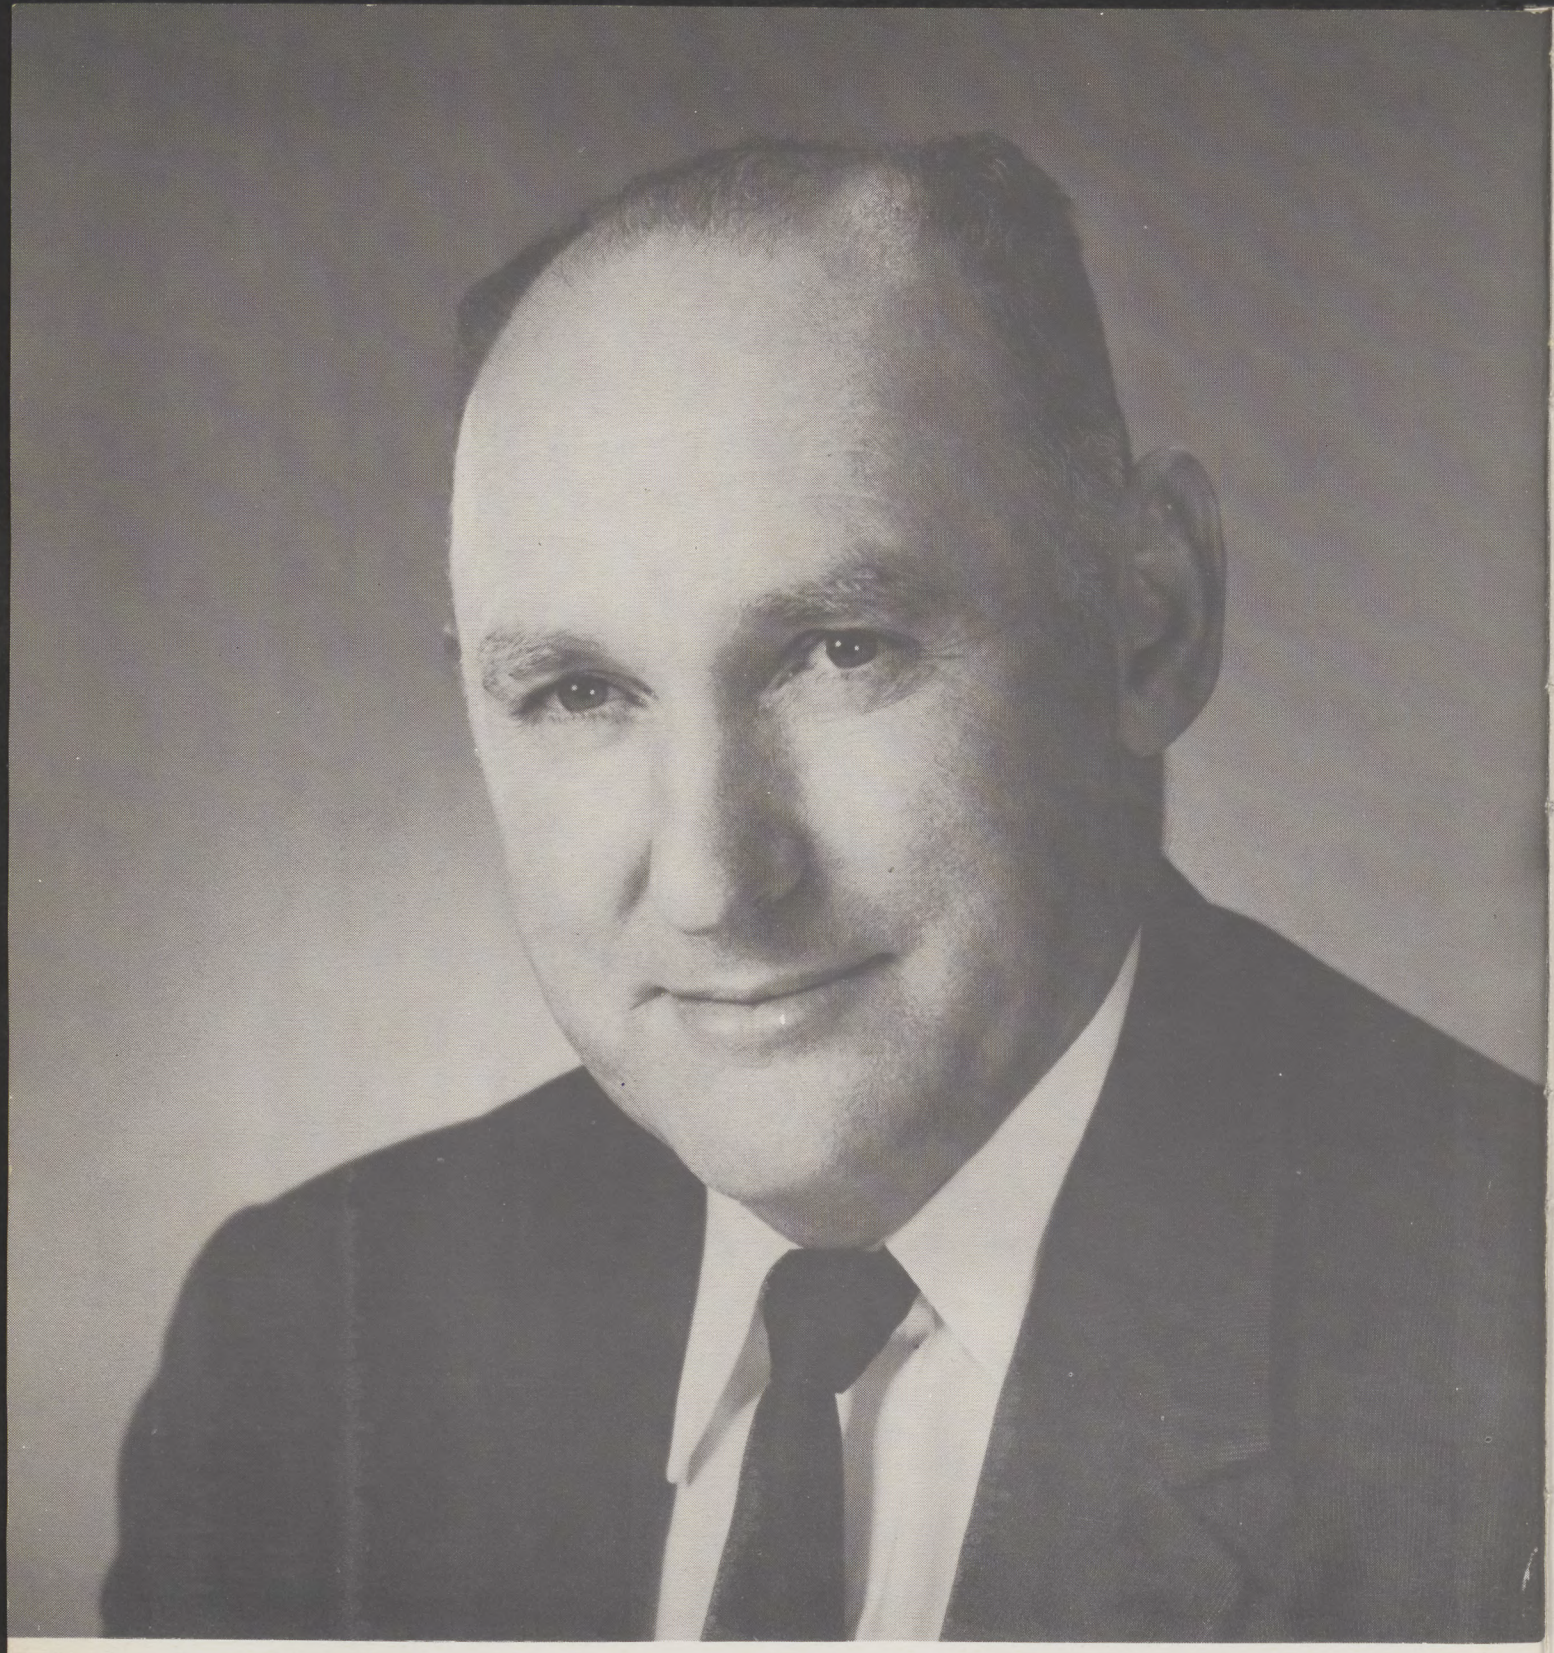

Southwest could not efficiently operate without those persons standing behind the scenes giving their talent and dedication to our college. Mrs. Huddleston is truly one of these dedicated people. Standing with President Huddleston, Mrs. Huddleston is the silent partner, who helps make Mr. Huddleston such an outstanding President.

Although Mrs. Huddleston may not be known personally by many of the students, every student at this college is aware of her contribution to our school.

To show our admiration and appreciation, we dedicate the 1965 "Whispering Pines" to Mrs. H. T. Huddleston, the woman behind our President.

SUMMIT, MISSISSIPPI

OFFICE OF PRESIDENT

The Sophomore Class of 1965
Southwest Mississippi Junior College
Summit, Mississippi

Dear Friends:

During your stay with us at Southwest, you have been an important part of the school program as a class and as individuals.

May it be your purpose in life whatever your hands find to do, that do with all your might. That is the lesson of all experience. Face every task with a determination to conquer its difficulties and never to let them conquer you. No task is too small to be done well. For the man who is worthy, who is fit to perform the deeds of the world, even the greatest, sooner or later the opportunity to do them will come.

I wish for you success in your future plans.

Most sincerely

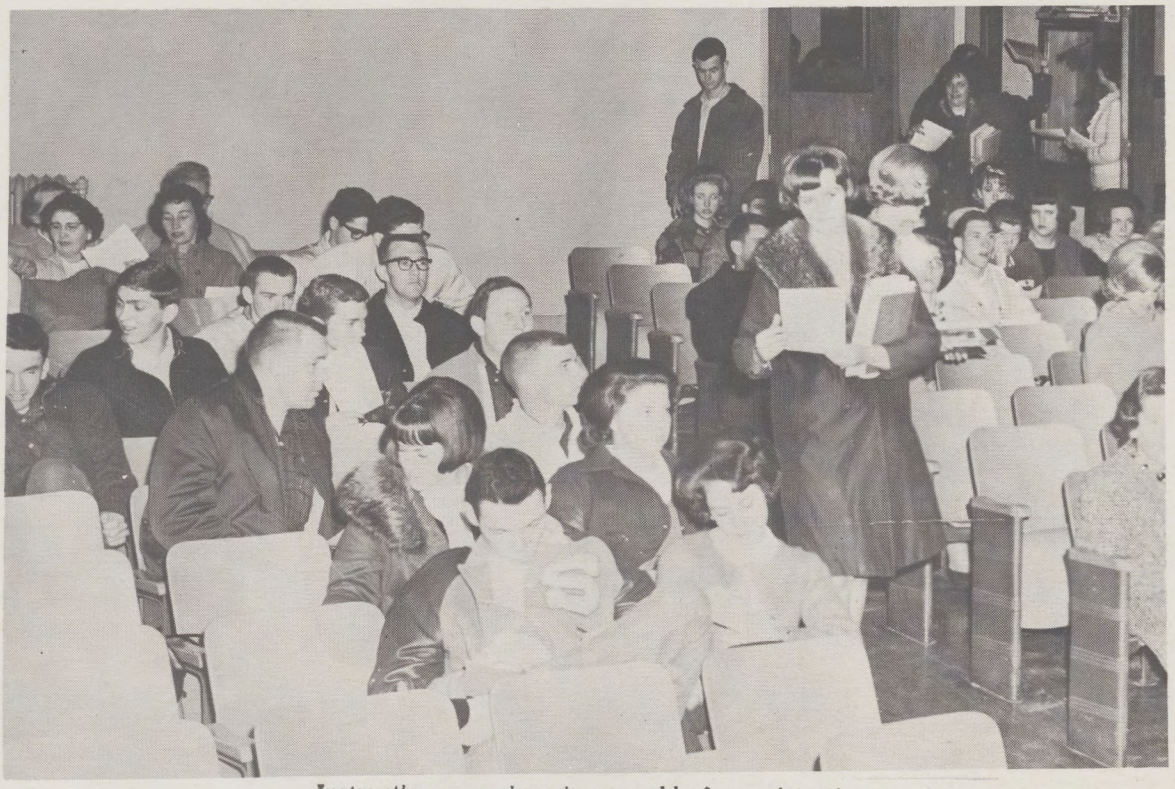

H.T. Huddleston

As we arrive...

...To begin another year at SMJC

Instructions are given in assembly for registration

All girls destination —

Orientation and Registration...

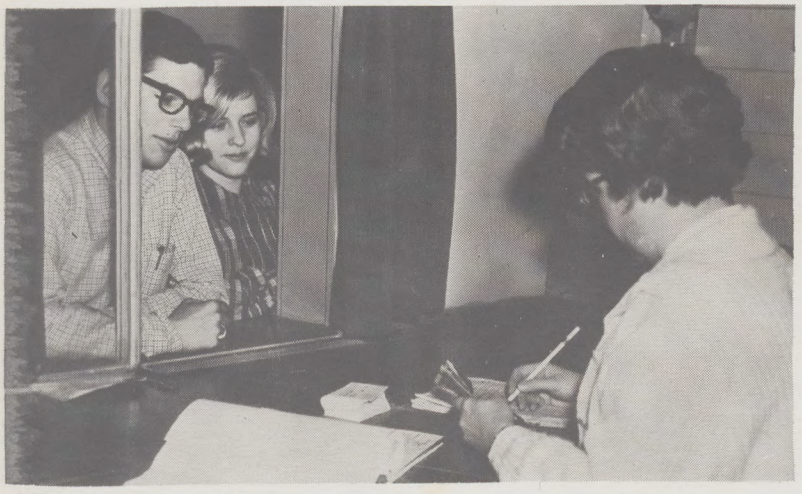

Debbie McGuire and Margaret Robinson prepare cards for registration.

Miss Hay gives helpful advice to freshmen in filling out schedules.

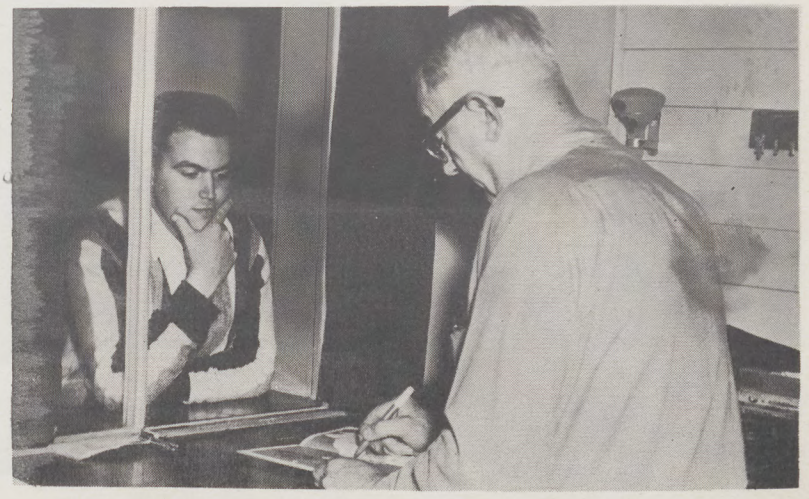

Mrs. Martin stamps registration cards for Joyce Burch and Leon Fortenberry

Freshmen Leon Fortenberry and Linda Ogletree buy lunch tickets from Miss Cotten.

"Come on Mr. Andrews, that book doesn't cost that much!"

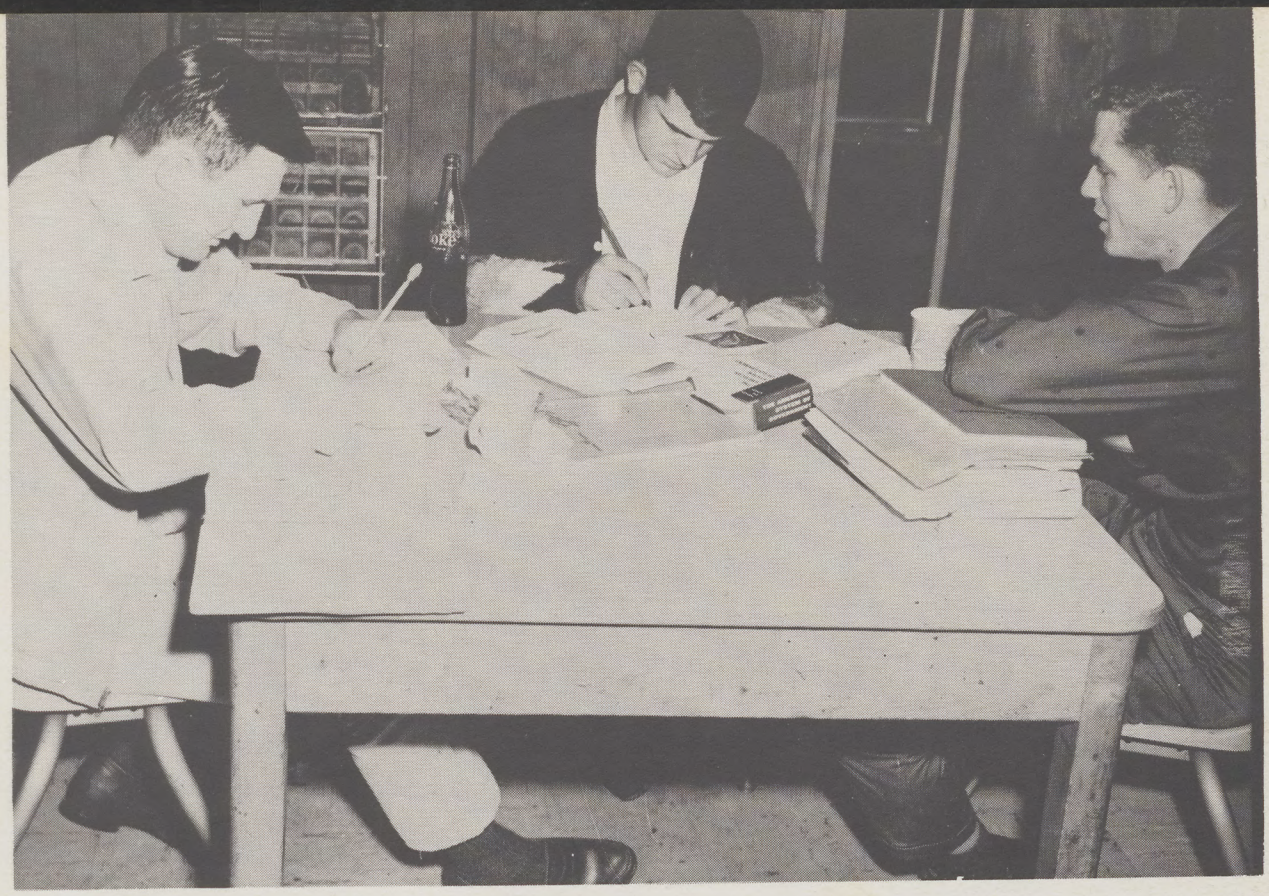

Followed by classes and the ole grind...

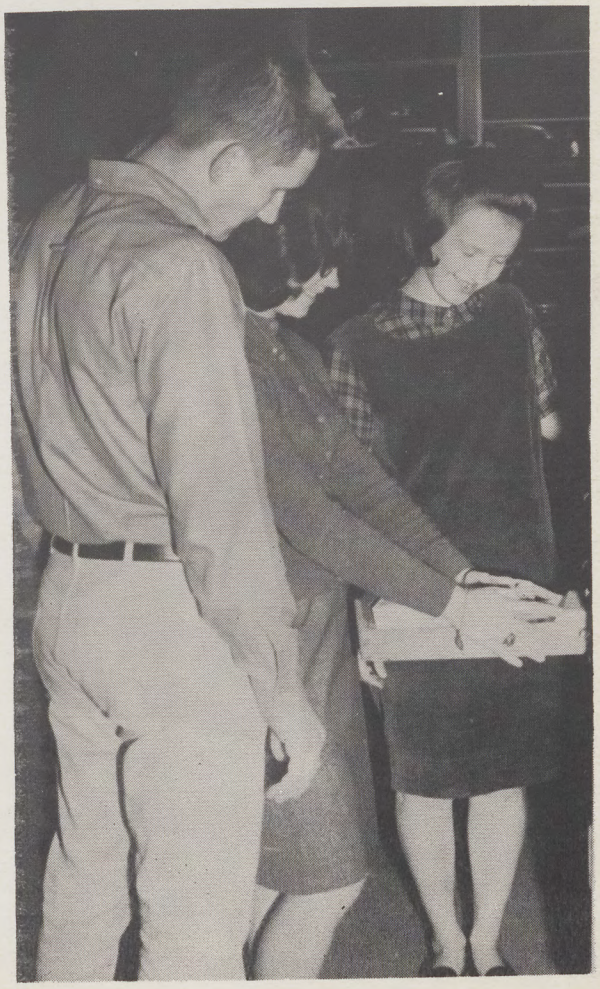

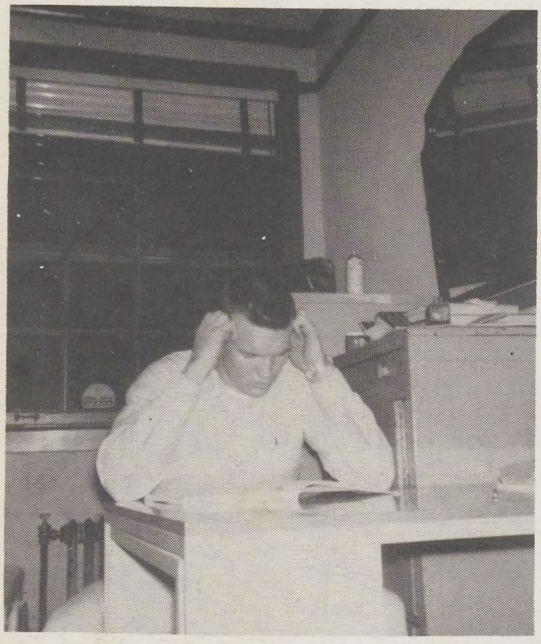

We settle down to dorm life...

Work

and

Play

Everybody found the cafeteria...

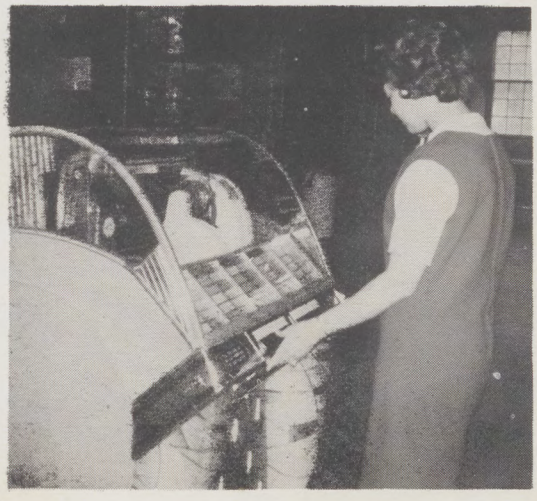

. . . The Den

... And the Girl's Lobby!

Hey Ronnie, the T.V. is not this way!

What's Leon up to now!?

What's so funny Sandra?

Come on Johnny, smile! !

"No, he can't go!"

Looks like love!

Ann is still talking!

Where's my date?

As the Bears take the field...

Mac Anders runs for a touchdown!

The majorettes perform at half-time.

...Southwest Spirit is high !

Loyal fans huddle together during the game!

Spirit is high as the cheerleaders dance around the bonfire!

...And Homecoming takes the spotlight

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

Freshman Day was a blast . . .

Freshman Day officially begins!

"Margaret, is that good?"

Molly enjoys messing Kenal up!

Ronnie Simmons yells 'dead bug"

The Freshmen serenade Coach and Mrs. Williams.

"Well, it beats walking!"

"I think I'm cute!"

as the Freshmen hit the ground!

. . . The Christmas spirit descends

"Aren't you a little big for this, Etta?"

President and Mrs. Huddleston carry out the Christmas spirit at S.M.J.C.

Marsha Jackson adds spirit to the dorm with her door decorations.

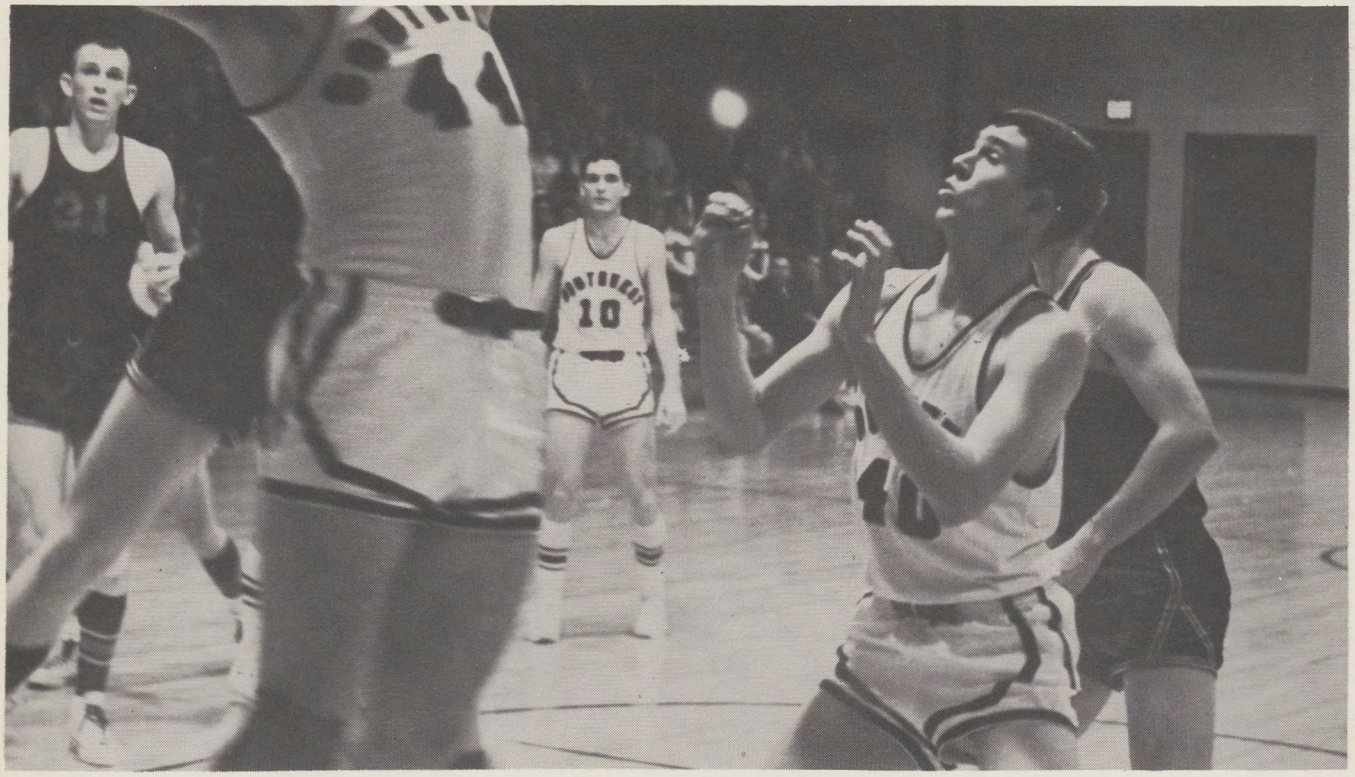

"Ho, Ho, Ho—Merry Christmas to all"

. . . And Fairy tales are presented

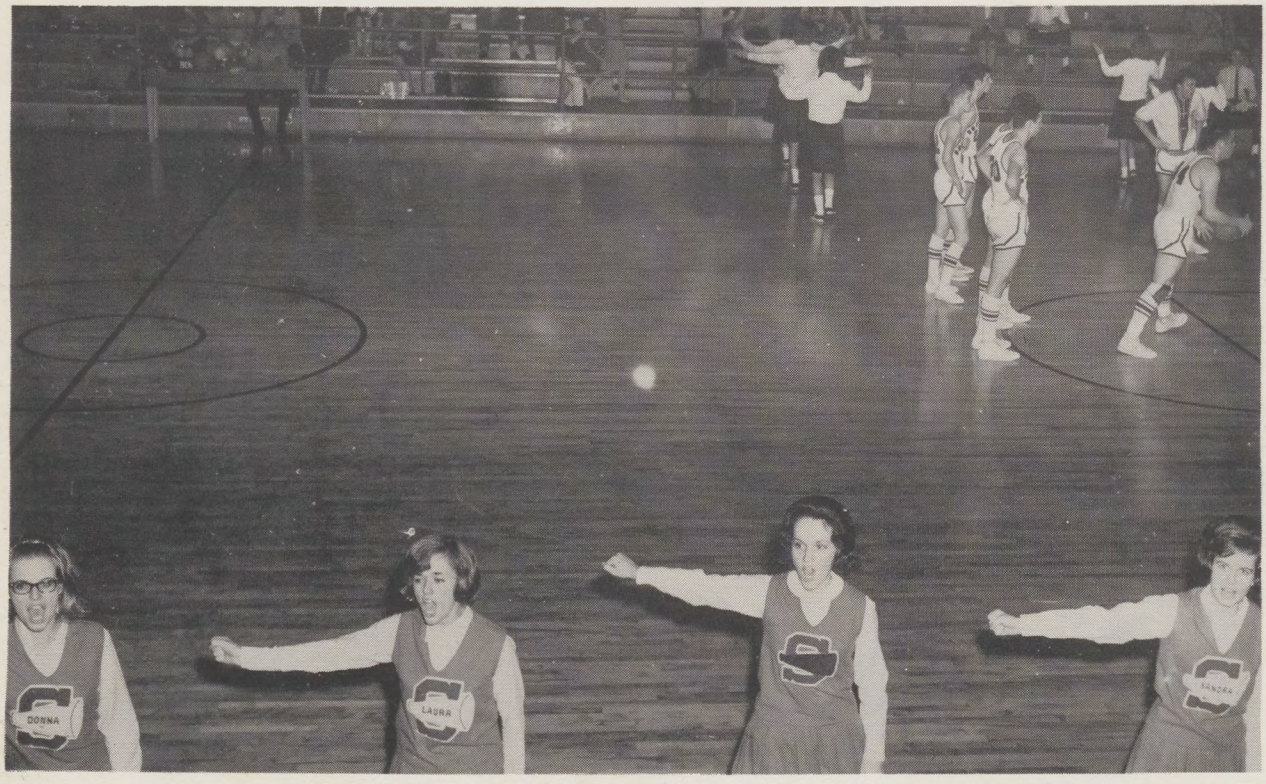

Twenty students under the direction of Miss Olive Hay presented four fairy tales sponsored by the McComb Junior Auxiliary. The plays, presented for the benefit of the children of the McComb area, were "The King's Holiday," "The Missing Gift," "The Queen's Mirror" and "The Enchanted Cottage."

Basketball history was made...

The Bears fight hard!

The cheerleaders add pep and enthusiasm before the game!

. . . And the spirit was high!

Our cameraman seems to be attracting attention!

Our pretty misses give the Bears their support.

A friendly atmosphere prevails at half-time.

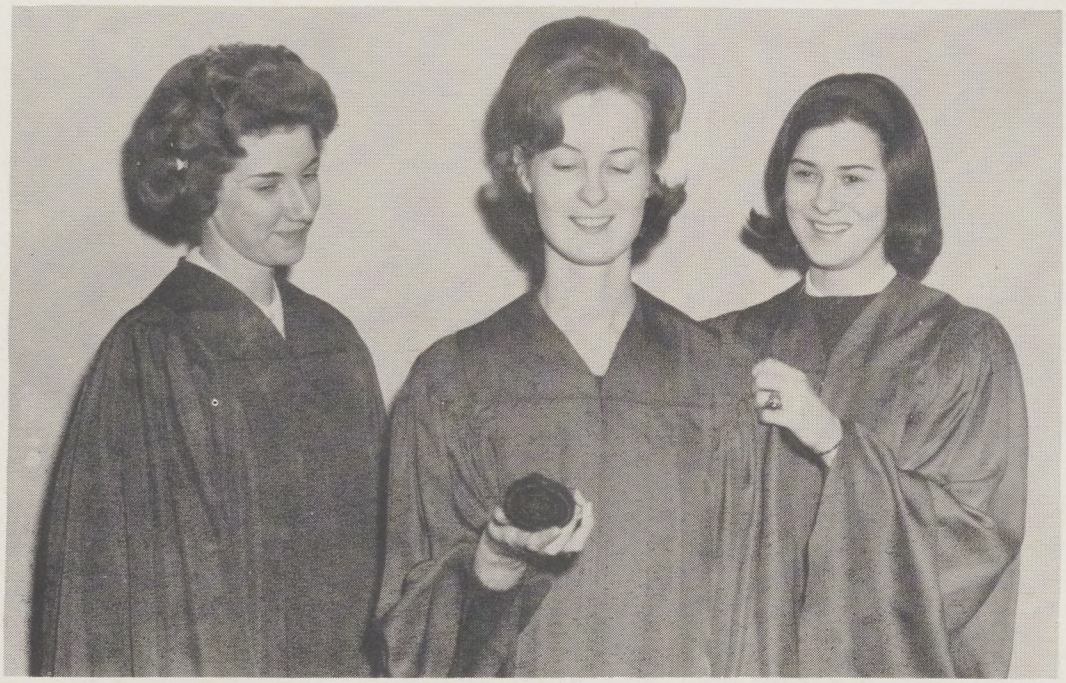

Graduation approaches!

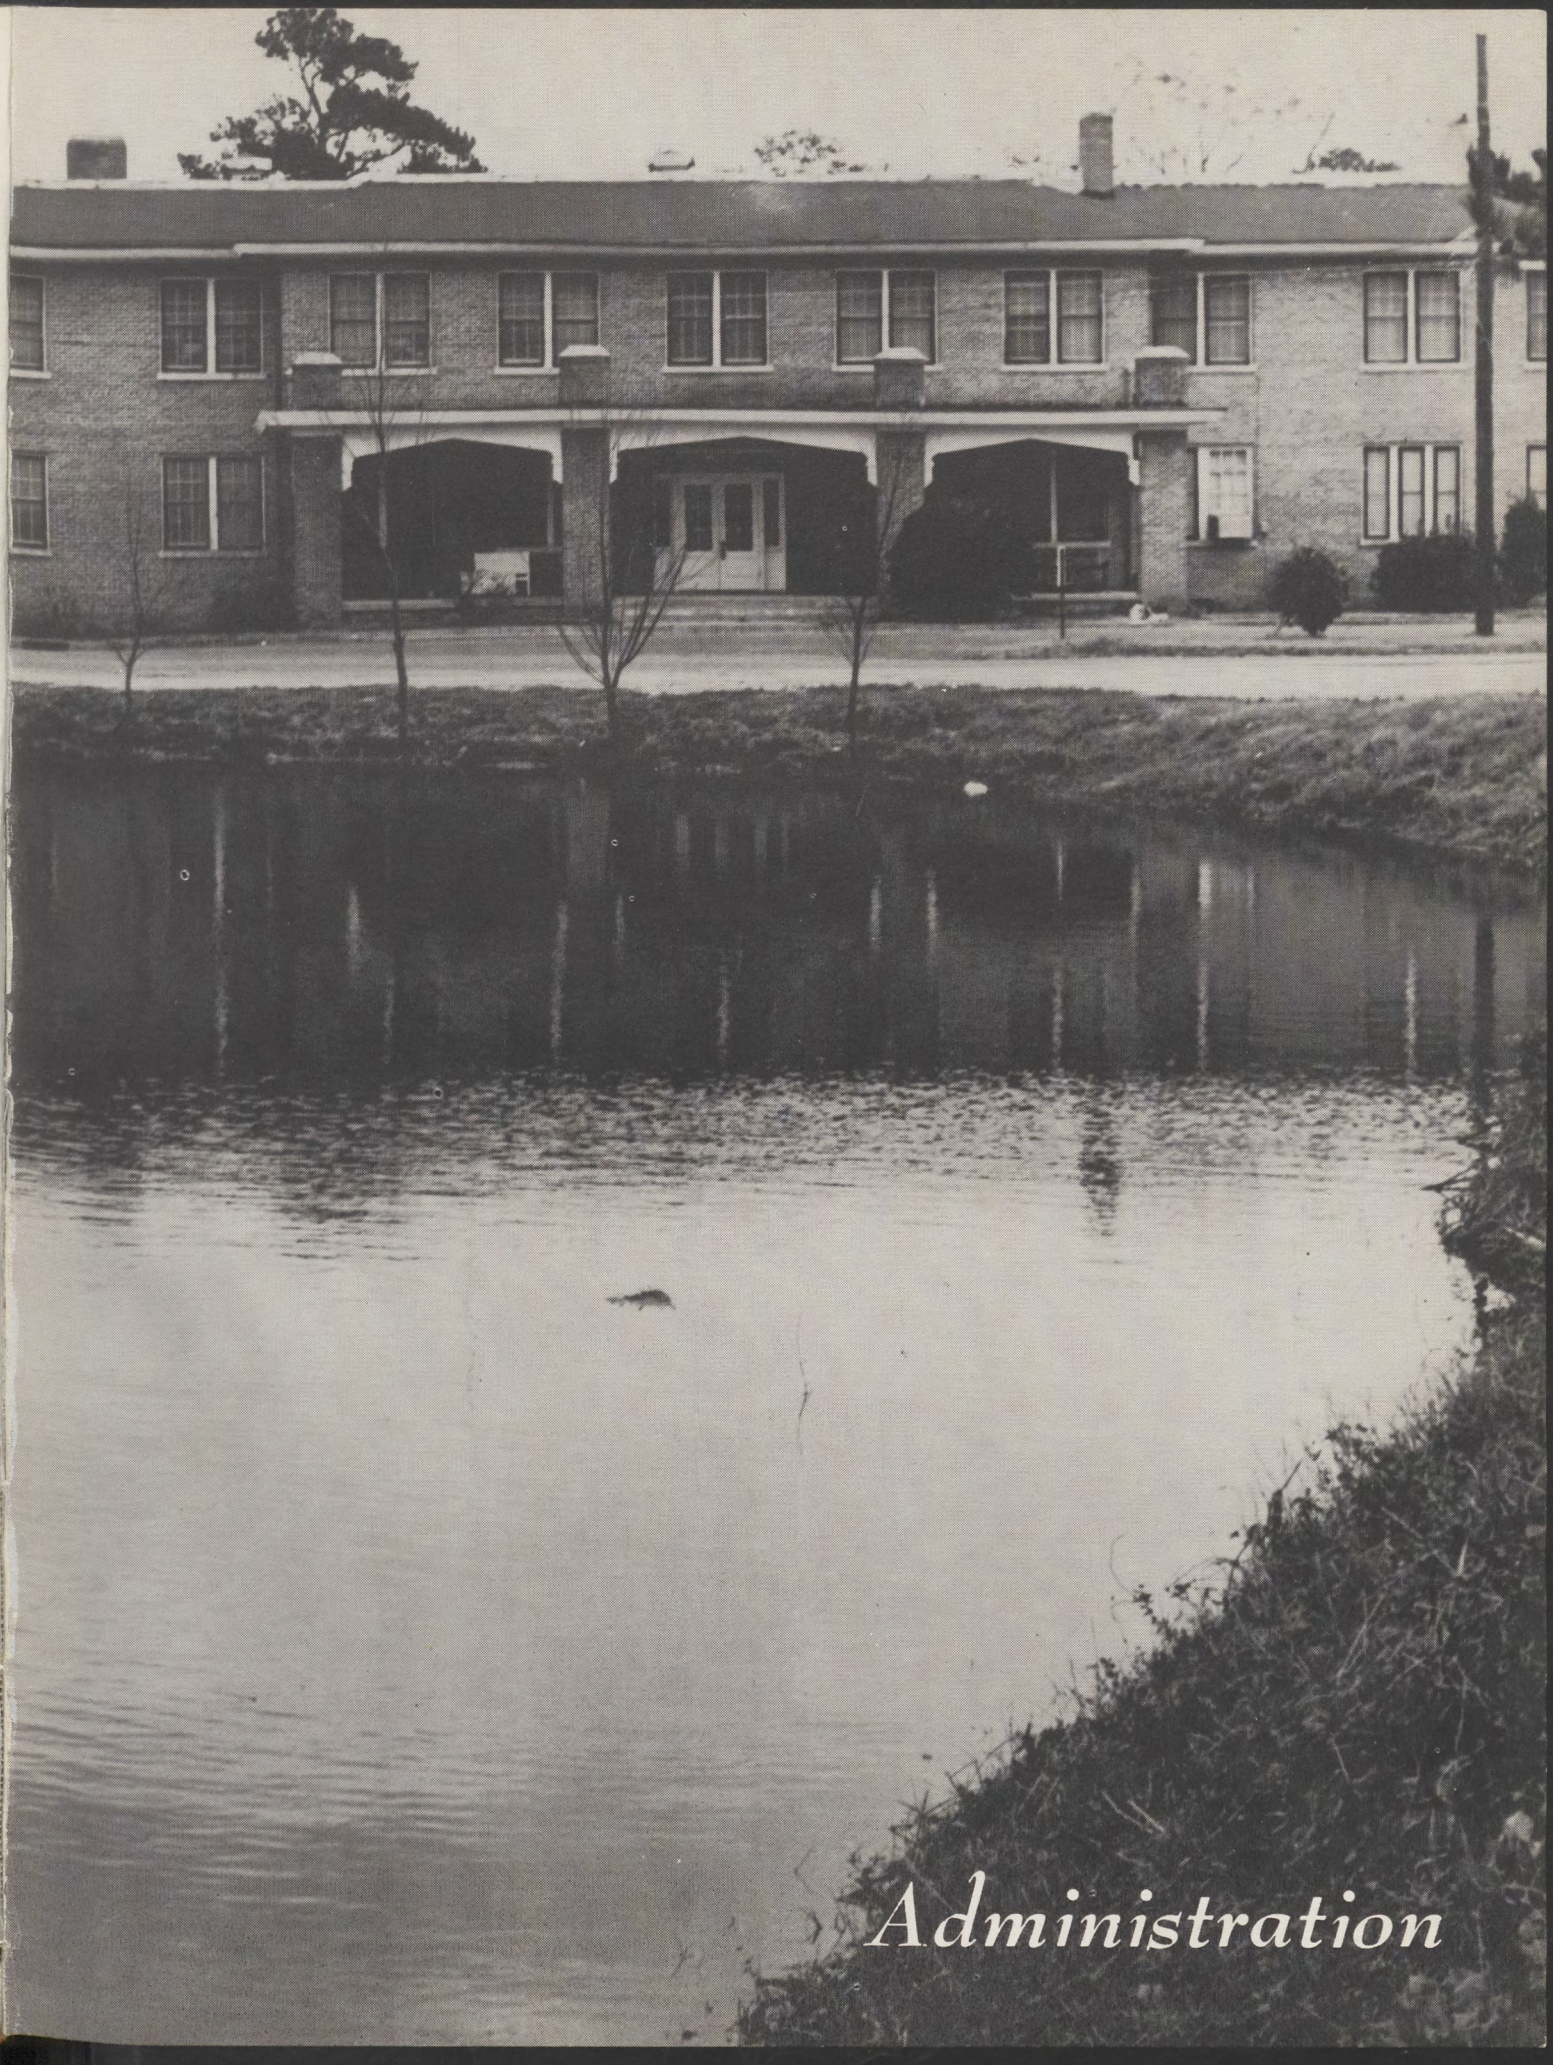

Robes are fitted . . .

Diplomas are examined . . .

. . . And final preparations are made!

Hall of Fame

To honor those outstanding graduating sophomores who have excelled in leadership, scholarship, and citizenship, is the purpose of the Southwest Mississippi Junior College Hall of Fame.

The students, who have been given this honor, are selected by a committee composed of faculty members. The committee uses great care in selecting those students who most deserve the honor of being a member of the Hall of Fame.

Hall of

JACK EASON

What makes a good leader? In order to be a good leader, one must be able to analyze any problem or situation, devise the best possible solution, and then carry out this plan for solution with intelligence and tact. Jack Eason has used these qualities of a good leader to serve his school as President of the Student Government Association. Not only has Jack served his school in this capacity, but he has also been an active member of the B.S.U. Choir, the Wesley Foundation, and the PINE BURR staff. To reward Jack for his work at Southwest, he has been chosen for the Southwest Hall of Fame.

Fame

DEBBIE McGUIRE

A combination of high ideals and high scholastic records merit Debbie McGuire her place in the Hall of Fame. Because of her intellectual abilities and diligent work, Debbie has been an honor roll student during both her years at Southwest. Debbie has used her intelligence and her willingness to work for the benefit of the WHISPERING PINES and the Student Government Association. She has also used her leadership ability by serving as Vice-President of the Wesley Foundation. Debbie, because you have given Southwest your best, you have been given a place in the 1964-65 Hall of Fame.

Hall of

PATTY REID

Two years of high scholastic average, a talent for organization, a pleasing personality, and a dash of acting ability — these are the ingredients which make Patty Reid such an outstanding student.

During her two years at Southwest, Patty has maintained a high scholastic average. Through her work as exchange editor for the PINE BURR, and class editor for the WHISPERING PINES. Patty has used her talents for the betterment of Southwest. Because of Patty's pleasing personality and abundance of school spirit, she was elected maid in the 1964 Homecoming Court. Another of Patty's achievements was in the Southwest production of "Come Blow Your Horn", in which Patty had a leading role. For her many achievements at Southwest, Patty has a place in the Hall of Fame.

Fame

VASHTI STEPHENSON

Perhaps it is her radiant smile, her friendly personality, or maybe even her reliability that has made Vashti Stephenson such a pleasant asset to her school. Ti's membership in the B.S.U. Choir, the PINE BURR staff, the WHISPERING PINES staff, and her lead roll in "The Queen's Mirror" show the versatility of this outstanding student. Ti's warm, friendly personality won the admiration of her fellow students, who elected her Freshman Class Favorite in the 1964 "Who's Who" contest. Ti was also honored her sophomore year at Southwest by being elected secretary of the Student Government Association. The contributions Ti has made to her school and to her fellow students give her the high honor of being a member of the Hall of Fame.

Patty, Jack, Vashti and Debbie walk out of our Hall of Fame and into what we know will be a successful future!

"What's in the cookie jar?" Billy Greer, Leone Wallace, Cecil Hall, Danny Richardson and Donna Clifton look on with anticipation as Peggy Cothern lifts the lid!

Ronnie Simmons, Don Magee, Vicky Lambert, Etta Causey, Margaret Robinson and Claud Harris look on as Billie Jane Wilson demonstrates how to operate a camera.

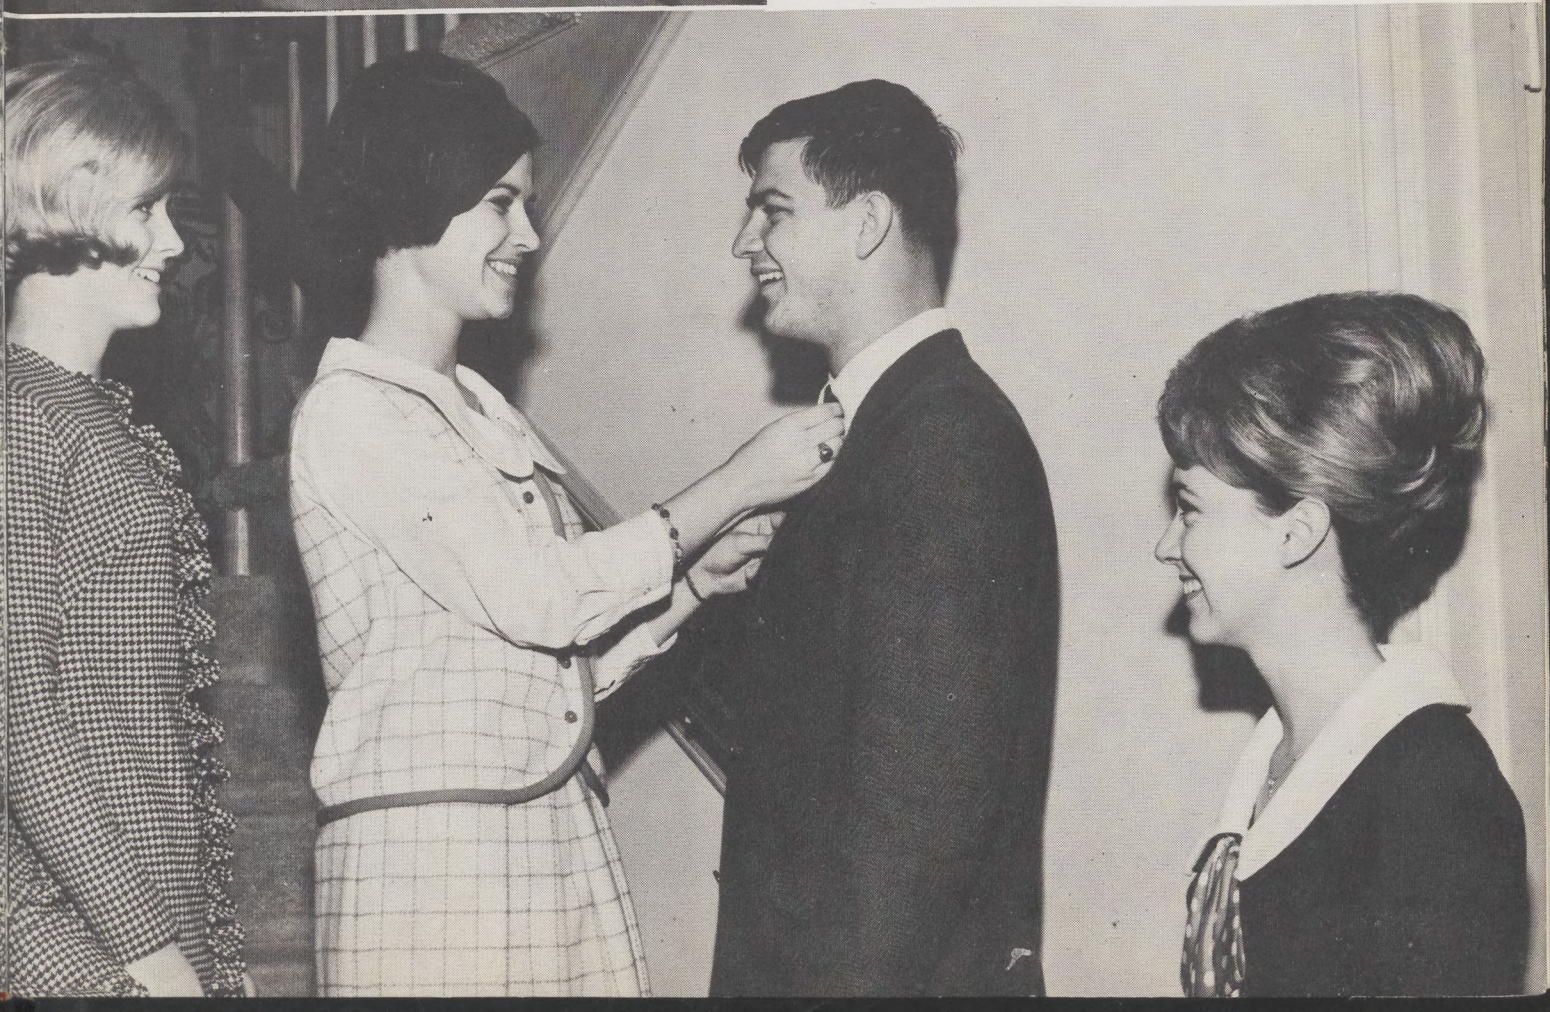

Beauties Sherry Tumey, Brenda Ogletree, Linda Ogletree and Sandy Walker look on as Judy Kraft demonstrates on Mac Anders how to keep your fella looking neat!

Cherrie Guyton, Laura Hickman, Leon Fortenberry, Judy Ballew, Kendel Brazzeal, Barbara Sterling and Bill Milton enjoy singing to an old time "player piano."

Remember when . . .

Miss Hay rode a bicycle?!

Miss Cotten gave money away?!

Eugenia tried to out-talk Donna?!

Peaches turned tame?!

No one asked to see their grades for one six weeks?!

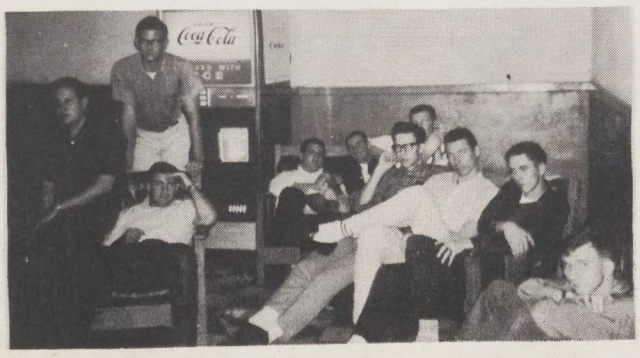

Someone got kicked?!

Don was shy?!

Southwest dances were crowded?!

The boys had a floor show in the dorm?!

Thanks to Our Patrons

The WHISPERING PINES represents the efforts of many people, and as editor, I sincerely thank each person who helped in its publication.

For the assistance given by Mrs. White, sponsor of the WHISPERING PINES, and for the cooperation of my staff, I am indeed grateful.

Without the faithful photography work of Mr. Balser and Mr. Breeland this publication would not have been possible.

I would like to say "THANK YOU" to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Alford, who allowed the Who's Who pictures to be taken in their lovely home.

Through this edition of the WHISPERING PINES, I hope that no matter how many years may pass, you will always be able to step back into the years 1964-65 and remember some pleasant moments at S.M.J.C.
